DAUGAVPILS FORTRESS

Daugavpils fortress is a unique cultural and historical architectural monument of national importance with a total area of 150 ha. Daugavpils fortress is also considered as the last bastion-type fortress in the world that has been preserved without any significant alterations since the early 19th century. The fortress from the bird view reminds the shape of a sun or a star but some find relations with a turtle or even a bat. This particular fortification system's shape was created specially to avoid so called "dead zones" around the fortress. Accordingly, the enemy can be easily noticed regardless of its location and the territory can be controlled effectively at the same time. It is supposed that 85% of the all fortifications remained in its initial condition till nowadays. All these aspects make the Daugavpils fortress the one of the most popular tourist attractions in Daugavpils.

DAUGAVPILS MARK ROTHKO ART CENTRE

Daugavpils Mark Rothko Art Centre is a multi-functional contemporary art and culture centre in Daugavpils Fortress. DAY 2, DAUGAVPILS - AGLONA - RAZNA NACIONAL PARK

AGLONA BASILICA

Aglona basilica was built in the late baroque style; it is decorated with two 60 metres high towers. Pilgrims come to Aglona every year on August 15 to celebrate the day of the Assumption of the Virgin Mary into Heaven. It is one of the most well-known sacred sites in the world. Groined vaults, arches and columns splendidly decorated in rococo style can be found inside. The Dominican order founded a monastery and built the first wooden church in Aglona in the 17th century. When in 1699 the wooden church burned down, the stone building of a monastery and the present temple was built on its place in 1768 – 1780. The interior finish of the church was created in the 18th – 19th century, but the pulpit and the organ – at the close of the 18th century.

HILL OF THE KING CHRIST

A unique sculpture complex with gardens and artificial ponds. Its area is approximately 20 ha.

THE AGLONA BREAD MUSEUM

At this museum, you will learn all about the baking of bread from grain to loaf, and you can make your own loaves, too. You can taste bread and herbal teas. There are theatrical performances related to christenings, weddings, birthdays, etc. Local foods such as dumplings and soups made of dried mushrooms or lake fish are served. The museum sells freshly baked bread, as well as the work of local craftspeople.

LUNCH AT BREAD MUSEUM

DEVIL'S LAKE (VELNEZERS)

A transparent lake, which is said to have no bottom, is one of the lakes of Latgale, that is surrounded by the largest number of legends. Velnezers (also called Certoks, Cortoks, Certaks) is located 12 km away from Aglona, in Aglona municipality, Skeltova civil parish, in the Graveri pine forest delve. Velnezers, being located in the middle of a bilberry forest, is one of the most transparent lakes in Latvia, it attracts people with a peculiar blue-green colour of its waters, its transparency and the strange legends that have surrounded it since ancient times. The depth of Velnezers, which is located in a funnel-shaped delve, reaches 17 meters, and the transparency of its waters in some areas is up to 12 metres. No river or spring flows in or out of this lake. Neither bulrushes nor water lilies grow there. Birds and wild animals avoid Velnezers, too. People say that there are plenty of snakes in the lake, and the fish is rarely caught, except fat perches. According to one of the versions, Velnezers resulted from the fall of some space object.

MAKONKALNS (CLOUD HILL)

Mākonkalns (Cloud Hill), also called Padebešu kalns, is located near Lake Rāzna (249 m above the sea level).

Relative height of the hill is around 50 meters, it is located in South-East direction from Rāzna lake. In the Medieval times the Volkenberg castle was situated on this hill – the oldest crusader fortress in Lotigolas (now – Latgales) land. Nowadays only negligible part has been preserved (ruins and coincided underground path) of once remarkable castle.

To the top of the hill leads path with stairs and couple informative stands. From top of the hill opens up marvelous view on nearest surroundings.

LUZNAVA MANOR

Art Nouveau gem of Latgale. It was built in the early 20th century as a place for art and music. Over the decades it experienced historic change, becoming a school, military headquarters, then school again, parish administration and library. At last in 2015 - reborn anew to inspire and become a true home for MUSE.
